CORRECTIONS

Margaret Ericksen, 1633 Dearing Road, South, Memphis, Tenn. 38117 has called my attention to the following errors in copying the marriages. Your editor appreciates these mistakes being called to my attention. It is our intention to be as accurate as possible, but often times the writing is very dim, smeared, or even just scrawled. If the name is unfamiliar sometimes a wild guess is necessary!

In Vol. I, #2, pg. 24--security should be OWENS W. HERRING. (Apr. 9, 1838) instead of Owing W. Himing.

In the same issue on page 25--(Sept. 11, 1838) should be J. B. Williamson, J. P. instead of J. B. William, JP.

In Vol. I, #3, pg. 39 (Jan 9, 1839 --should be J. H. Hairess, M.G. (should this be Harris??) instead of J. H. Hams.

In the same issue page 63--date of issue should be 4 December 1839 instead of Dec. 9. Also, should be Michael Tyre instead of Michael Tyne.

In the same issue, page 64 (January 20, 1840) the groom should be Owen Herring instead of Owen W. Heming.

from Edna Zornes Cabler, 4908 Log Cabin Road, Nashville, TN 37216:

Volume IV, #2, pg. 44. (Sept. 20, 1844) groom should be Bennet Perdew (Perdue) instead of Burnit Perdew.

Sarah - wife of S. T. Bufford born in Montgomery Co., Tenn. Sept. 14, 1811 - died Dec. 11, 1859.

from Randolph, Tipton Co., Tenn. newspaper "Randolph Whig", Vol. 1, #10, dated 7 April 1838:

Married in Montgomery County, on Tuesday evening the 13 ult., by the Rev. O. C. Ragland, T. McCulloch, of Brownsville to Mary Jane Pickering, of the former place. (note by M. Ericksen: This marriage records appears on pg. 23 of THE MONTG. CO. GENE. JOURNAL, Vol. I, #2, Dec. 1971. The above item from the newspaper supplies missing data on the Marriage Record)

Letters written during the Civil War (1861-1865) by Cordelia Lewis Scales, a teenager in Marshall County, Mississippi.

This spunky young lady--"the right bower of the Rebel army.." wrote with great insight and maturity of her experiences during the war. Martha Neville Lumpkin has compiled these letters into a very interesting booklet. She has added footnotes from the official records to substantiate or further explain references made in the letters.

If you are interested in the Scales family..or if you are a Civil War buff..or if you are just interested in a charming story, read DEAR DARLING LOULIE.

Thomas Adams is a native Tennessee artist. Born and reared in the Clarksville area, Adams has either drawn or painted most of the significant historical sites of the area. His love and concern for history inspired him to do a composite of pen and ink drawings of the buildings that the Public Library inhabited through the years. These drawings are now displayed in the Montgomery County Public Library.

Adams is more noted for his historical scenes but he has been commissioned on numerous occasions to do wildlife, portraits and still life.

He has displayed his work in various art shows in Tennessee and Kentucky. His work has also been displayed in a number of business establishments throughout this area.

Thomas Adams is a self taught artist and he has developed his own style and technique in painting. The only former training Adams has had in basic art. was in High School. He has taken a commercial art course with Art Instructions School, which has helped to broaden his perspective in the art field.

Adams has worked in the field of commercial art but his preference is fine arts. Even though he prefers fine arts, he enjoys learning and working varied fields of art. Mr. Adams says "My enthusiasm and ambition is to create."

Mr. Adams says of his ability to paint that "It is a God given talent for which I am very thankful."

Art is to please, to mean something to each and everyone, and Mr. Adams works very hard to accomplish this in his paintings.
