Montgomery Co., Tennessee

Copied from microfilm. Original list is in the State Library and Archives in Nashville, Tenn. Besides the information listed below, the original list included the tax on the listed items. The tax rate was $1.00 per $1,000 or 1/10 of 1%. Tax per white poll was 25¢. SL and CR by certain entries denote School Land and Carriages. Space did not permit listing them in a separate column as on the original.

Obituary in Bi-Weekly Tobacco Leaf, Montgomery Co, Tenn. Friday, May 3, 1887:

Death of an old Citizen-- James Hamlett, probably the oldest citizen of Montgomery county, both as to residence and actual age, died at the home of his son, J. J. Hamlett, on First Street, at 9 o'clock Sunday night. Mr. Hamlett was born in Warren County, N. C., Nov. 25, 1795 and was consequently nearly 92 years old. He came to this county with his parents when only ten years old and settled near the present site of Port Royal. He served in the War of 1812 and fought the British under Jackson at New Orleans. He was a life-long admirer of "Old Hickory" and named his oldest son for that hero. General Jackson once presented this namesake with a silver half dollar, which is still kept in the family as a memento. Hr. Hamlett lived under the administration of every President the United States has ever had. He was a man of very fine character and made it his boast that during his long life he was never a party to a lawsuit. He had ten children, seven of whom survive him. The funeral takes place this morning at ten o'clock from J. J. Hamlett's residence. Service by Rev. W. R. Peebles, Interment at Greenwood Cemetery.

James Hamlett married (1) Miss Elliott who died ca 1820 leaving two children: John and Jane, an infant. (2) Jane Atkins in 1823. She died after James Joseph Hamlett was born in 1824. (3) Mary Jane Atkins.

The silver half-dollar mentioned in the newspaper article bore the date 1832, the birth year of Andrew Jackson's name sake, Andrew Jackson Hamlett. And incidently (or perhaps this is more important from the historical point of view) it was the year Jackson was re-elected President of U.S. by a wonderful majority.
